Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) says it has registered 5,575 families from Hurricane Katrina now living in Missouri for its various disaster relief programs. The numbers from Hurricane Rita indicate 1,112 families (This is a corrected number).

State Emergency Management Agency Volunteer Coordinator reports 50 people are being sheltered at a Southern Baptist church camp near Benton in Scott County. Another 16 people are being housed at the Arkansas- Missouri Christian Camp near Naylor in Ripley County.

The Remington Service Center in Springfield remains open for victims of both storms to register for assistance with various local, state, and volunteer agencies. Salvation Army reported 50 new cases. American Red Cross reported 66 new cases. 27 people returned to the Service Center for additional help. 464 cases were closed. To date 1,451 families (representing 3,467 persons) have been assisted in Southwest Missouri. They have been assisted by 287 volunteers from many volunteer organizations. Southwest Coordinator reports that FEMA Community Relations have been at the Remington Service Center since it opened, FEMA also has staffers at Salvation Army in Branson. Remington Service Center will be closed on Friday, October 7th and will reopen on Monday, October 10th.

The Missouri Donation Hotline (800-841-8891) continues to take calls from anyone wishing to volunteer or donate to victims of both Hurricane Rita and Hurricane Katrina. AmeriCorps volunteers are staffing the hotline from 8am-7pm, seven days a week.

EMAC Support:

Missouri support under the Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) for the two storms includes the following:

- Two SEMA personnel are now working in Mississippi, assisting the state with disaster mitigation and floodplain management activities. They are expected to be on the ground through the end of next week. Two additional SEMA staffers are scheduled to be dispatched later this month.
- A SEMA employee is in Baton Rouge, LA to assist in the state's emergency operations center. This employee is expected to return sometime next week.
- Members from several fire departments in Region C (St Louis area) continue their work in Gulfport, MS with 18 personnel and 8 water tankers. They are assisting the local fire department with firefighting activities. Personnel from Region C are being rotated down to the disaster area to replace the members of the original contingent.

SEMA has received no requests for state assistance within the last 24 hours.

Severe Weather Potential.

There are no current watches or warnings for the State of Missouri. Temperatures have dropped by 30 degrees after the cold front moved through Central Missouri. Temperatures will steadily rise over the weekend.
